Dated - 10.02.2025

Notice

Revised Dentists (Code of Ethics) Regulation, 2014 incumbent upon all Dental practitioners to follow the standards of Professional conduct and etiquette. This has come to notice that some of the Dental Practitioners are not complying with the Ethical Regulation which are mandatory as a result Unethical Practices such as to indulge in demeaning solicitation and false promises through advertisements in Social Media, Direct Marketing, Being associated with corporate bodies, Displaying unregistered Degree, Dispensing of Drugs, Practicing Facial Aesthetic treatment and Hair Transplant other than Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeon, Conducting Dental Courses/Workshop/Training without registering nor obtaining the prior permission from the State Registration Body or any other body as stipulated may creep in. This is in violation of the said Regulation.

Therefore it is impressed upon all the Dental Practitioners to follow the Ethical Rules in letter & spirit otherwise it renders the Dentist unfit to be kept in the Dental Register.
